A Message from the Directors

Welcome to Frisco High School Theatre, and thank you for joining us for Into the Woods. Tonight's performance represents the very best of what young artists can achieve when passion, discipline, and collaboration come together. These remarkable students have poured their hearts, creativity, and countless hours of hard work into bringing this beloved and challenging musical to life, and it is an honor to share their work with you.

Into the Woods, with music and lyrics by Stephen Sondheim and book by James Lapine, is a work unlike any other in musical theatre. Weaving together familiar fairy tales, it invites us to look beyond "happily ever after" and consider the choices we make, the consequences that follow, and the responsibility we share for one another. While whimsical and humorous on the surface, the story asks thoughtful questions about wishes, community, and what it truly means to grow up. These themes feel especially powerful in the hands of young performers navigating their own journeys.

This production would not be possible without the extraordinary dedication of our cast, crew, and pit orchestra. From the performers onstage to the technicians behind the scenes, and the musicians bringing Sondheim's iconic score to life, these students have demonstrated professionalism, resilience, and an unwavering commitment to excellence. They support one another, rise to challenges, and lead with kindness – qualities that extend far beyond the stage.

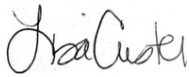

We are deeply grateful to our colleagues in band, orchestra, and choir for their collaboration and support, and to our incredible administration for their continued encouragement of the Fine Arts. Your belief in our students and programs makes work like this possible. We also extend our heartfelt thanks to our theatre families. Parents, thank you for your time, your flexibility, your encouragement, and for trusting us with your children. Your support is the foundation on which everything we do is built.

As educators and directors, we are incredibly proud of this company and thankful for the opportunity to work alongside such dedicated, thoughtful, and talented young artists. We invite you to sit back, enjoy the journey, and step Into the Woods with us.

With immense pride, gratitude, and joy,

Thank You, Techs

Without our amazing Theatre Technicians, this production would not have costumes, lighting, props, sets, sound, and more. The techs work alongside the production team and actors to make our shows complete.

Because our techs stay behind the scenes and you do not see them until after the final curtain drops, please join us in applauding their hard work.

You may not see or hear them during the performance, but you are witnessing the magic they've created.
